INTRODUCTION

This document sets out the responsibilities and powers of the Race Prosecutor within the judicial framework that applies to Karting Australia Competition.

Each State Association (“Association”) may appoint one or more Race Prosecutors.

Role and Responsibilities

The Race Prosecutor’s principal role is to act on the instructions of the Officials at a KA sanctioned Race Meeting and appear at a Steward’s Hearing on behalf of Officials of the Meeting.

The Race Prosecutor will accept instructions from either the Clerk of the Course, the Race Director or the Chief Scrutineer.

Subject always to any other provision in the Australian Karting Manual, the Race Prosecutor:

1. Shall advise the Officials in relation to proceedings brought by the Officials or proceedings which are to be responded to by the Officials.
2. Shall act as an advocate for the Officials.
3. Shall act always on the instructions of the Officials.
4. Shall deal with all matters in accordance with the rules.
5. May make recommendations to the Officials regarding procedures, rules and other matters but the Officials shall not be bound to accept such recommendations.
6. Does not have a power or a duty unless the power or duty is specifically conferred on the Race Prosecutor by the Rules.
