

Queensland's Central Highlands

There is just so much to see and do

Visit a Central Highlands Visitor Centre

For local info and great customer service visit a local Central Highlands Visitor Centre. You'll find one in:
Emerald Blackwater Springsure Daringa Capella

Take a walk

From bushwalking to an easy stroll around the shops, or even for a bit of exercise.

- Japanese Gardens, Blackwater
- Minerva Hills, Springsure
- Botanical Gardens, Emerald

Say G'day to a local

Central Highlanders are a friendly lot and the region is made up of a large number of diverse cultures, our lifestyle is laid back and welcoming, so smile and say hello.

Experience our National Parks

Experience the Australian bush and meet our local flora and fauna. Be amazed by some of the most spectacular Australian landscapes or simply sit by the campfire and enjoy a sunset of fiery reds, oranges, pinks and purples.

- Blackdown Tableland
- Carnarvon Gorge
- Nuga Nuga NP

Jump in a car and go for a drive

Jump in the car and explore. The Central Highlands offer a number of great drive opportunities, from an easy drive out to the lake, a loop of the Sapphire Gemfields to Capella, or an adventure through the Minerva Hills

Be a pioneer, feel our living history

Visit the numerous pioneering sites in the Central Highlands and experience first hand the hardships of opening up this vast region to the richness that the farming sector enjoys today

- Old Rainworth Fort
- Capella Pioneer Village
- Emerald's Historic Railway Station

Engage in Indigenous culture

Long before the pioneers arrived in the region, the area supported a number of Aboriginal groups. Share in the stories and art that is represented in the region, a culture as old as time itself.

Enjoy our many attractions

Visit a working coal mine, unearth a brilliant sapphire, take in a local event or play on one of our many waterways. There are gem shops and sapphire mines to explore, there are Coal Centres and coal mines, there are rivers, creeks and lakes where you can fish, ski or paddle. There are numerous local events from horse racing to rodeos, multicultural festivals to gem festivals. There is just so much to see and do.

Dine out or shop in

From take away to fine dining, the choices are endless as are the many shopping centres and specialty stores.

Accommodation to suit all budgets

Bring your van, book a cabin or stay in one of our many motels, you can even sleep out under the stars, so bring your swag.

Would you like to know more about our region?

Contact the Central Highlands Visitor Information Centre for the best advice from a friendly local who knows.

Contact: 07 49824142

Central Highlands
QUEENSLAND
more than you expect!

www.centralhighlands.com.au